
18 observations, 1.05–22.7 GPa; all ten degrees retained in each ranking.
Historical normal equations lose accuracy at degrees 8–10. A numerically stable fit does not establish that a high-degree polynomial is a suitable physical model.